Meadow Lodge is located on the site of Lea Green Learning and Development Centre, which is in the village of Lea near Matlock. The facility is located a few metres away from a fully accessible, sensory play area, which is open to the general public. To use the play area, visitors need to first register with Lea Green, and then simply let the staff know when they wish to visit. The toilet is for use by anyone who requires it. Access is gained by requesting a key at the main Lea Green building. There is a car park adjacent to the facility.

The facility is open whenever Lea Green is open (please call to check first):

Monday – Friday	09.00 – 17.00
Also numerous evenings, weekends and public holidays	Please call to check first – 01629 534561
